

Teaching Genealogists AI™
Instructor: Sylvia
Vargas

Worksheet 2 — 1887 vs. 1899 Census Comparison

Course: Census Records for Puerto Rican Genealogy

Module: Module 3 — The 1899 Military Census

Purpose: Compare the same individual or household across the 1887 Spanish Colonial Census and the 1899 U.S. Military Census to identify continuity, changes, and conflicts.

Researcher Information

Field	Entry
Researcher Name
Date of Analysis
Municipality (municipio)
Barrio

Field	Entry
Research Question

Source Identification

Field	1887 Census	1899 Military Census
Source title	Puerto Rico Padrón General, 1887	Puerto Rico Census, 1899
Repository / URL
Collection / Film number
Page / Entry number
Source type (Original / Derivative / Authored)
Information quality (Primary / Secondary / Indeterminate)
Date accessed

Individual or Head-of-Household Comparison

Data Field	1887 Entry	1899 Entry	Match?	Notes
Name as recorded
Name spelling variation
Age
Calculated birth year
Birthplace
Marital status
Occupation
Race / Color classification
Literacy (read/write)
Property listed
Barrio / Location

Household Members Listed

Member	Role	1887 Name & Age	1899 Name & Age	Present in Both?	Notes
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

Add rows as needed. Note anyone who appears in one census but not the other.

Evidence Conflicts and Observations

Field with Conflict	1887 Entry	1899 Entry	Probable Explanation	Evidence Type (Direct / Indirect / Negative)

Summary Notes

Question	Answer
Does the same individual appear in both censuses?
What changed between 1887 and 1899?
Are there household members unaccounted for?
What records should you search next?	